

A breach of 14,000 accounts exposed 6.9 million people

The 2023 breach of 23andMe. Almost none of those 6.9 million had their own account entered; they were reached through the DNA Relatives feature. No encryption was broken.

